GENEALOGY OF GEORGE KAHLER (1810-1871)

Compiled August 1939

by

Mrs. Harvey Hiatt

George Kahler was born in North Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, September 10, 1810; died February 20, 1871, age 61 years.

He married Jane McKeen, and to this union was born two children: Samuel who was a Methodist minister, and William who died in infancy.

After Jane McKeen Kahler's death he married Rebecca Decker, a daughter of Adam Decker. Rebecca Decker Kahler was born October 30, 1819 in Union County, Pa., and died September 2, 1897. She walked across the Blue Ridge Mountains to a town in search of work. There she met and married George Kahler. They moved to Pulaski County, Indiana, in 1846, and moved then to the farm known as the Kahler place which is 3 miles south and west of Star City, and now owned by Mace Kahler.

In this genealogy George Kahler and wife are of the first generation. His children, marked with Roman numerals, is the second; his grandchildren marked with common numerals, is the third; his great grandchildren marked with capital letters is the fourth; his great great grandchildren marked with small letters prime (a') is the fifth; his great, great, great grandchildren marked with small letters double prime (a'') is the sixth.

To the best of our knowledge there have been 372 descendants; as follows:

David	20	Rachael	51	Peter	8
Jane	15	Barbara	62
→ George	188	Rebecca	23
